INVITATION TO WORSHIP (Opening liturgy is adapted from Psalm 72)

One: We come to worship the One who endures beyond the sun's span, and who holds dominion from sea to sea, from the smallest grains of sand to the ends of the earth.

All: May that One be like rain that falls on mown grass, like showers that refresh the earth.

One: Blessed be the Holy One, who alone does wondrous things. Blessed be your glorious name forever.

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us pray.

PRAYER OF APPROACH AND CONFESSION

One: We who are wise by your grace, render tribute to you, O Living God. We bow before you, for the journey has been long and the nights dark, but now we are here to adore you, and to render service. God of every nation, by the light of a wondrous star you led wandering magi to Jesus, revealing to them your salvation for the world.

All: In the miraculous and the mundane, in the traditional family and the curious and hungry stranger, with all who have glimpsed the light of your grace, we seek Christ, that we may offer our life gifts and serve him sincerely.

One: Merciful God, Light of the world, we confess that we have invested in the darkness, gloried in it. You long to deliver the shadowed poor and the helpless, but we ignore your voice in their cry.

All: You take pity on the weak and destitute, but our hearts seem hard. Forgive us, we pray. Awaken in us sincere repentance that we may freely smile upon the innocence of Jesus, and be awakened to the riches of faith.

French carol, 1553

All the gay gems of day – pearls the morning sky adorning, manifold gems of gold, golden getting now day’s setting, are the sun’s pretty ones of his shining or declining, are his joys, birthday toys – these God’s very babe make merry; When Sir Sun his course done, westward stooping home’s gone drooping, it is naught. Look! New wrought joy and beauty bear his duty – planets peep down night’s deep, softly seeming gold and dreaming jasmine o’er heaven’s door. Lest God’s only babe fall lonely. TODAY'S MUSIC includes several pieces featuring the Epiphany chorale "How brightly beams the morning star" (Hymn #98). Buxtehude's work is an extended prelude on this chorale, and the chorale is sung by the choir in the Cornelius solo. The prelude includes a movement of the 20th century French composer Olivier Messiaen's suite "The Nativity of our Lord" which depicts the journey of the wise men. Listen as the wise men seem to take a brief rest about half way through the movement! The postlude is the concluding movement from Messiaen's suite. In "God among us", listen for the use of descending musical passages – both in the manuals and in the pedals – to symbolize God's descent to earth in the form of Jesus. Also, in the middle section, God seems to come to a very busy world, complete with the sound of Parisian car horns!
